Grade 12 Worksheet

Entrepreneurship and decision making

South Africa grapples with staggering youth unemployment rates, surpassing 60%. This crisis demands innovative solutions to equip young people with economic opportunities.

Structural barriers, skills mismatches, and limited job opportunities contribute to South Africa's high unemployment rates, particularly among its youth. Entrepreneurship presents a promising avenue to empower individuals and drive economic growth.

By fostering a culture of innovation, creativity, and self-reliance, entrepreneurship empowers individuals to create their own opportunities and contribute to the economy. Moreover, entrepreneurship aligns with the values of adaptability, problem-solving, critical thinking, and resilience, which are essential for navigating uncertain economic landscapes.

5.a. How do you define adaptability in the context of entrepreneurship?

b. Can you describe a situation where you had to adapt to unexpected challenges?

c. Identify other entrepreneurial characteristics that you think that adaptable people might have (outside of those listed in the mind map)

d. What strategies do you employ to remain adaptable in the face of uncertainty or setbacks?

e. Describe a time when you asked for support from someone who'd been in a similar situation. Did it make adapting easier?
